<https://www.youtube.com/live/AOvorpOD6lQ?feature=shared&t=2123> timestamped multiple bed prints

17:49:47 From Justyn Woods To Everyone: Replying to "DICOM to NRRD file CONVERSION <https://fabacademy....>": would be cool to see

17:50:08 From Benedikt To Everyone: Just in case that someone will use a scanner from the Creality CR-Raptor series. Make sure that your firmware is UpToDate we notice that we can't use the scanner in the moment without a firmware update. For that you need a Mac pc, an Android Smartphone with some google drive App or an older win 11/10 installation (not updatet since the 15 January 25) Patrick - waag:[]

17:50:20 From Patrick - waag To Everyone: Replying to "DICOM to NRRD file CONVERSION <https://fabacademy....>": I will try to contact her but no promises []

17:50:34 From jakob To Everyone: another way to represent 3d objects is gaussian splatting: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Gaussian\_splatting however, i did not understand it thoroughly. however, many andone can use it.

17:52:15 From jakob To Everyone: Replying to "another way to represent 3d objects is gaussian sp...": *maby anyone can use it

17:52:50 From Forrest O. To Everyone: Replying to "another way to represent 3d objects is gaussian sp...": I haven't seen that process leading to a "water tight" mesh. It's really neat though for how it represents light refractions, reflections, etc. Garrett Nelson:[]

17:53:23 From Fab Lab Barcelona To Everyone: Is Lidar2d or 3D good for edge detection, like a window from a wall?

17:53:43 From Superfablab Kochi To Everyone: is artec leo lidar?

17:53:46 From Benedikt To Everyone: Some newer Ipad pros also did a really good job

17:55:32 From shintaro ito : Node jpaan kannai To Everyone: As I recall, there was a 3d scanning app from unreal engine a while back that you can do on your phone.

<https://www.unrealengine.com/en-US/realityscan> Ricardo Marques:☐

17:57:12 From Patrick - waag To Everyone: isn't that what they did for one of the latest star wars to recreate deceased actors ?

17:57:19 From Marius Araújo To Everyone: For anyone scanning people, baking flower (nicer to the environment) of talcum powder (not so nice) helps scan hair, which otherwise is too shiny for pulsed light scanners

17:57:20 From Jarni Rai Castillo Yarlequé To Everyone: wuaoooo

17:57:24 From Aristarco To Everyone: Creepy

17:57:31 From shintaro ito : Node jpaan kannai To Everyone: wow Jarni Rai Castillo Yarlequé:☐
